Agenda

1. Awareness to be created among the students about the Grievance Redressal Committee.
2. Action to be taken in case any Grievance is represented by the students.
3. Any other matter.

Minutes of the meeting

1. Resolve that the students may be made known about the existence and functions of Grievance Redressal Committee.
2. If any grievance is brought to the notice of the committee by any student, it is resolved that a meeting of the members should immediately be convened to find out whether such grievance truly exist and if so a decision to be taken for redressing such grievance by representing the same to the concerned authorities or by taking a suitable action.
3. In addition if any grievance is represented in the class committee meeting by the students, it is resolved that such grievances should also be brought to the notice of this committee for redressal.

Since there was no other matter to discussed the meeting came to close with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr S. Mazhalaisilambu, Convenor.

Report of Grievances Redressal Cell (Students) for 2021 – 2022.

Grievance if any is reported by the students in the meeting of the class committee conducted by the principal. Such Grievances are refered to the concerned HoD for their Redressal. In case grievances represented by the students cannot be redressed by the concerned Hod, it will be refered to the Grievances Redressal Cell which conducts an enquiry and if found genuine it will be redressed immediately.

Thus the grievances expressed by the students by the class committee meeting and the action taken are given in the report on class committee meeting.
